

Please do not weaken NJ's consumer protection act. While I still occasionally get unwanted solicitations (from people representing the police, etc), I appreciate not getting those calls. I am an informed consumer, and I don't need nor want their advertisements.